PJ Scheese updated PC Members regarding the Tigue Farm (aka Jordan Manor). The property has been accepted into the county or state open space program and the family is currently reviewing the paperwork before signing. They want to be sure that the property can still be subdivided into three lots to be purchased by three different farmers.

New Business

Vice-Chair Janice Gavin asked the question "Do we have specific zoning for Methadone Clinics?" Her concern is based on Methadone Clinics that have popped up in Maryland where there was no specific zoning regarding where they may be located. There was some discussion on this. PJ Scheese said she would look into whether this should be considered or if these would fall into the category of medical facilities, which do have specific zoning in ENT's Zoning Ordinance.

Old Business

- Height Limitation of Residential Accessory Buildings – Member Marc Arot said he has been considering this issue and believes that the height of a residential accessory building should be tied to the lot size. PJ Scheese brought up deed restrictions and HOAs possibly being the determiner of this issue. It was agreed to leave this alone until after the New Year.
- PC Christmas Party – The party is going to be at the Scheese home. The date is Friday, December 19, 2014. The time is 7pm. There was discussion regarding who is bringing what. This list will be included in a separate email to the PC members.

Correspondence - NONE

PC Members

- Member Art Rieck requested a copy of the original Stantec review letter for the Langston Subdivision.
- Tom Faux suggested that an article be written in the Township Newsletter about the unbarricading of the section of Fulton Road at Coates Point.
